Sygnity: Financial Results for Q4 2020/21

Recommendation: buy | target price: PLN 11.70 | current price: PLN 9.22

Sygnity failed to impress us with its financial results for the quarter ended 30 September 2021 (Q4'20/21).

EBITDA showed an 18% rebound from the corresponding year-ago period at PLN 12.4m.

Revenue was largely flat, marking an improvement on the two previous quarters, when Sygnity reported respective y/y falls of 15% and 10%. On higher sales margins, the quarterly gross profit increased nearly 7% y/y.

Sygnity incurred surprisingly low SG&A expenses in Q4'20/21 that require further explanation; selling expenses in particular came out well below our expected PLN 2.2m at PLN 1.0m. This was a major reason behind a 9% EBITDA beat vis-à-vis our estimate.

Sygnity revealed that its order book for fiscal 2021/22 is PLN 149m at the moment, equivalent to approximately 73% of the FY2020/21 topline figure – an indication that Sygnity has to step up efforts to mobilize revenue growth in the new fiscal year.

- At PLN 51.2m, revenue in Q4'20/21 was at a stable level compared to the corresponding year-ago period, marking an improvement from the double-digit falls registered in previous quarters.
- The gross margin amounted to 31.3% vs. 32.4% expected by us and 29.2% reported in the year-ago quarter.
- SG&A expenses totaled PLN 6.4m, down from PLN 7.9m a year ago, whereas we had anticipated PLN 8.1m.
- Sygnity incurred a PLN 0.1m loss on other operating activity in Q4'20/21 (vs. neutral effects expected by us).
- Tax in the fourth quarter was “positive” to the tune of PLN 0.3m, resulting in a positive bottom line surprise (we had expected a 17% levy), with net profit showing 19% y/y growth at PLN 8.9m.

Strong and weak points of valuation methods used in recommendations:

DCF – acknowledged as the most methodologically correct method of valuation; it consists in discounting financial flows generated by a company; its weak point is the significant susceptibility to a change of forecast assumptions in the model.

Relative – based on a comparison of valuation multipliers of companies from a given sector; simple in construction, reflects the current state of the market better than DCF; weak points include substantial variability (fluctuations together with market indices) as well as difficulty in the selection of the group of comparable companies.

Economic profits – discounting of future economic profits; the weak point is high sensitivity to changes in the assumptions made in the valuation model.

Discounted Dividends (DDM) – discounting of future dividends; the weak point is high sensitivity to changes in the assumptions as to future dividends made in the valuation model.

NAV – valuation based on equity value, one of the most frequently used method in case of developing companies; the weak point of the method is that it does not factor in future changes in revenue/profits of a company.
