Daily Briefing

Czech banks

Czech Central Bank Governor sees inflation peak at 13%-14% level

According to Ceske Noviny, Czech Central Bank Governor Jiri Rusnok expects inflation in Czech Republic to peak at around 13%-14% level this year. Rusnok expects higher inflation to prevail and to start declining next year. Head of Central Bank also expects further rate hikes however below 1 p.p. as the current level at 4.5% is already sufficient. Finally, Rusnok expects further strengthening of Czech currency to 24.20 CZK/EUR – 24.30 CZK/EUR in first half of the year given less tense environment. The interview comes in-line with our expectations for a Czech base rate at 5% in 2022.. Nonetheless our assumption of a base rate reduction in 2023 to 3.0% may be too dovish given higher levels of CPI during the year. (M. Konarski, M. Lemańczyk)

Tauron

Preliminary Q4 results in line with our expectations, above consensus

Tauron reported that preliminary EBITDA in Q4 amounted to PLN 445m including already reported negative one-offs at PLN -391m (PLN -102m extra provisions on prosumers contracts in trading segment and PLN -289m losses due to Jaworzno 910MW shutdown until April 29). Adjusted EBITDA would be therefore PLN 836m, inline with our estimate at PLN 844m and 16% above market consensus at PLN 717m. Distribution segment was the main contributor to EBITDA at PLN 716m vs PLN 686m in our estimates. In conventional generation EBITDA amounted to PLN 56m, after one off-adjustment it would be PLN 345m vs PLN 413m in our forecast. Gross generation volume was 0.4 TWh higher. RES generation unit posted PLN 126m EBITDA, in line with our expectations. Trading EBITDA loss at PLN -499m was below our estimates (PLN -354m), even adjusted by mentioned one-off provisions (adj EBITDA PLN -397m). In mining segment company reported positive EBITDA at PLN 44m which was a surprise to us (our estimate at PLN -14m) with slightly higher volumes. Net profit was affected by mentioned one-offs, so it is not comparable to our estimates (PLN -112m vs expected PLN 215m). Company reported quarterly capex at PLN 0.97bn and final 12M figures make up to 101% our FY assumption. Results are generally in line with our expectations but higher than market consensus so we may see some positive share price reaction today. However we are rather cautious on mining segment reported profit and need more clarification here together with final Q4 report to be published on March 30. Of course outlook for generation profitability in 2023 remains bullish and that is the main positive catalyst that may support Polish power utilities going forward. (K. Kliszcz)

Take-Two

Take-Two eyes late 2024 for GTA VI?

Yesterday, Take-Two released standalone projections for 2022-25 (page 108 of the filing). Net Bookings might suggest that the Company plans to release GTA VI in the late 2024 – which seems to be in-line with current consensus. Nevertheless, the Company showed projected decline in y/y performance for both adjusted EBITDA and net income which was found discouraging by the investors (-7.6% yesterday). Projections are slightly below current consensus. On the other hand, GTA V is being released today for current PlayStation and Xbox consoles (it is the third generation of consoles on which GTA V will be available; game was originally released in 2013). The game will top sales ranking in our opinion. (P. Poniatowski)

Cognor

Hold - 2022-01-17
Target Price: 4.10

CEO Interview

Cognor CEO Sztuczkowski claims that the last prices quoted by PUDS about the price of ribbed bars for PLN 5.5 thousand may be no longer valid. The CEO believes that the prices are already PLN 6.2 thousand and may reach PLN 7 or 8 thousand. At the same time, according to the CEO, the prices of steel scrap increased by PLN 600 per ton, which is very good news. Until June, Cognor has raw materials, including ferroalloys, needed for production. The current situation at the steel market supports producers, especially Cognor, which does not have to deal with higher energy prices. Quarterly Earnings Results

CEZ

Accumulate – 2022-01-17
Target price: CZK 936.91

Reported EBITDA 16% above market consensus and impressive FY22 guidance

- CEZ had a 16% market consensus beat on 2021 Q4 reported EBITDA (close to our own estimate). Adjusted result would be even higher as company booked specific temporary effects in generation at CZK -2.6bn (revaluation of hedging sales of electricity part of 2022 generation (-1.6bn) and revaluation of traded allowances (-1.0bn)). EBIT was weighed down by asset impairment in the amount of CZK 3.6bn (o/w CZK -1bn in generation and CZK -2.5bn in mining segment) and higher depreciation due to provisioning for dismantling and demolition of coal-fired power plants in Czechia after decommissioning.
- In Generation (incl. renewables), EBITDA amounted to CZK 9.3bn and it was CZK 1.2bn higher than we anticipated. After abovementioned specific temporary items adjustment the positive surprise would be even higher. Nuclear power plants EBITDA increased yoy by CZK 2.2bn, fossil-fuel plants improved profitability by CZK 1.6bn but yoy positive contribution came also from trading line (CZK +1.4bn yoy including CZK +3.4 prop trading margin).
- Distribution segment achieved EBITDA of CZK 4.6bn in Q4'2021 broadly in line with our estimates. YoY drop includes negative effect from Romanian/Bulgarian assets disposal. On a comparable basis this was CZK -0.2bn yoy due to fixed operating expenses pressure.
- In Sales, EBITDA came in at CZK 0.4bn vs. 1.0bn expected, probably due to lower margins due to turbulent environment.
- Mining segment reported CZK 1.3bn EBITDA, 7% below our expectations. YoY improvement is related both to higher revenues on internal supplies (CZK +0.2bn) and external sales (CZK +0.1bn).
- Financing activity surprised on the upside thanks to some revaluation of financial derivatives and securities.
- Operating cash flow in Q4 2021 was CZK 33.1bn (due to WC changes reversal), capex amounted to CZK 11bn (CZK 32bn after 12M, close to our FY assumption). Net debt decreased to CZK 108bn (1.8x recurring EBITDA).
- FY2022 Outlook: CEZ announced its 2022 EBITDA guidance in the range of CZK 85-89bn (our estimate at CZK 66bn and market consensus at 71.5bn), with net profit expected to be CZK 38-42bn (our estimate at CZK 26.9bn and market consensus at CZK 28.6bn). Main catalysts behind such yoy increase are: significant higher realization prices and growth ambitions in ESCO services. We were expecting such levels only in 2023 due to hedging inertia.
- Dividend proposal and policy adjustment: CEZ management proposed 2021 dividend at CZK 44 (implied DYield at 5.1%) vs our assumption at CZK 37.5. The submitted proposal (106% payout ratio) has two components: regular at CZK 37 and extraordinary CZK 7 as a contribution of the Bulgarian assets divestment. Company informed about returning to 60-80% payout ratio in coming years from the current 80-100% of adjusted net income. Regarding payment from 2022 profits, company expects DPS at CZK 56-62 representing 80% payout ratio, which would imply DYield next year at 6.5%-7.2%.
- Summing up, CEZ EBITDA beat looks impressive especially after reported figures adjustment. Market will be however more focused on positive surprise on DPS and very bullish 2022 guidance which is 25% above market consensus in the upper range. (K. Kliszcz)

Strong and weak points of valuation methods used in recommendations:

DCF – acknowledged as the most methodologically correct method of valuation; it consists in discounting financial flows generated by a company; its weak point is the significant susceptibility to a change of forecast assumptions in the model.

Relative – based on a comparison of valuation multipliers of companies from a given sector; simple in construction, reflects the current state of the market better than DCF; weak points include substantial variability (fluctuations together with market indices) as well as difficulty in the selection of the group of comparable companies.

Economic profits – discounting of future economic profits; the weak point is high sensitivity to changes in the assumptions made in the valuation model.

Discounted Dividends (DDM) – discounting of future dividends; the weak point is high sensitivity to changes in the assumptions as to future dividends made in the valuation model.

NAV – valuation based on equity value, one of the most frequently used method in case of developing companies; the weak point of the method is that it does not factor in future changes in revenue/profits of a company.
